Millinery

This is a well equipped and up-to-date establishment where all the latest styles in ladies' headwear are displayed. The trimming is tastefully and artistically executed under the trained eye of experience coupled with a natural aptitude and taste for that kind of business. The quality of their goods coupled with an artistic finish is their strongest recommend. These ladies are practical and experienced milliners. They have been raised in Heber and worked in their mother's millinery parlors in their girlhood and after her death they conducted the business for some time. They have recently opened parlors on Main Street
